DAILY COURIER. LETTER FROM FRANKFORT. Rousseau's Resolutions on the Nav-igation of the Mississippi—Sinking Fund Bank Birl—Hodge's Pream-ble to Majority Report on Federal Relations, &c., &c.

Correspondence of the Louisville Courier. FRANKFORT, March 30. Editors Louisville Courier: Senator Rous eau's resolutions in regard to the naviga ion of the Mississippi, were taken up yes terday afternoon. Dr. Johnson having a account to settle with Capt. Rousseau, be ause of his remarks on the Military bill and having promised to meet him "a Philippi," made a speech of considerable length, in which he did not confine himsel everely to the matter under consideration but proceeded to follow the course of Sen tor Rousseau's speech on the Military bill This morning, Dr. Johnson still holding he floor, Capt. Rousseau, by consent, with drew the resolutions previously offered by im, and presented the following as a sub itute, which were ordered to be printed, thus further postponing definite action. Upon perusal it will be seen that the lanruage of the resolutions proposed as a subtitute is much more courteous, dignified, and well considered than that of the

Whereas, This General Assembly has learned that, by the action of a Congress of certain States held in Montgomery, Ala-bama, in February last, the free mavigation of the Mississippi river is obstructed, and bama, in February last, the free mavigation of the Mississippi river is obstructed, and the right of those States is asserted to search the vessels and tax the commerce on that river; therefore, be it Resolved, That the right of the people of Kentucky to the free, unobstructed navigation of that river and its tributaries is absolute and indisputable; and being of vital importance to them, Kentucky can never consent, under any circumstances. ever consent, under any circumstances but it shall be illegally interfered with r conceded to any power or person what Resolved, That the General Assembly has

Resolved, That the General Assembly has teard of the action of the Congress with perfound regret and the most serious inquiende, and feels it its duty to the good people of Kentucky and to those States, at muce to say, in all kindness, that without total disregard of the interests, the annever, under any circumstances, concede the right to search her vessels, or illegally tax her commerce on said river or its tributaries to any person power or state, and that she carnestly trusts that the action of said Congress may be reversed state, and that she carnestly trusts that the action of said Congress may be reversed and revoked, that Kentucky may not be called upon to surrender a right so essential to the interests of her people, as is the right to the free and unobstructed navigation of said river and its tributaries.

Resolacd, That the attention of our sister States in the valley of the Mississippi, together with Virginia and Pennsylvania, be called to the subject of these resolutions, and to that end the Governor is requested. id to that end the Governor i o forward copies of the same to the Ex-utives of these States.

Dr. Johnson's Sinking Fund Bank bil was taken up, and after a thorough ventiation, rejected by the following vote:

In the House, Mr. Hodge, after a few brief and pointed remarks in addition to what he had already said in opposition to he preamble of the majority resolutions, resented the following as a substitute: presented the following as a substitute:
WHEREAS, The following amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been proposed by Congress to the Legislatures of the several States, viz:

State."

State."

And whereas, said proposed amendment is not and ought not to be received by Kentucky as a settlement of existing difficulties, yet, as Congress possesses no such power under the present Constitution, and the bill of rights of the Constitution of Kentucky declares that "the right of property is before and higher than any constitutional and the right of the owner and the property is the constitution and the right of the owner. before and higher than any constitutional senction, and the right of the owner of a slave to such slave and its increase is the same, and is as inviolable as the right of the owner of any property whatever," we regard said proposed amendment as a declaration of rights we alrea y claim to possess: Therefore, &c. THEATER-SECOND NIGHT OF THE GRAND NAUTICAL SPECTACLE OF THE PILOT-TH BRILLIANT AND SUCCESSFUL COMEDY OF 'TAKE THAT GIRL AWAY."-The attend nce at the theater during the past week was rather light, owing to a variety of causes. Among them may be stated the strong opposition from the German Troupe and the blind boy Tom, and not the leas in importance the fact that it was the last week of Lent, a period most religiously bserved by all Episcopalians and Roman Catholics, among whom are to be found some of the best patrons of the theater. ent having passed, and the Germans migrated, we expect now to see the theate wear its accustomed cheerful aspect, with ts usual assemblage of lovers of the drama During the present week two or three ben chits of the stock company are expected to come off. Among them may be mentioned those of Mr. Krone and Mr. Lytton. The former is acknowledged by every one to b one of the most careful and correct actor on the stage. Always respectable in every thing he undertakes, he not unfrequent enders a part with extraordinary excel ence. Off the stage as well as on, he is known as a quiet, modest, and upassumin centleman. We hope that his first benefit ere, which takes place to-morrow night will be in every way a good one.

To-night we have the grand nautica rama of the Pilot and the very taking omedy, performed for the first time here t Mr. Dickson's benefit, called "Take that irl Away." A capital bill, which should draw a crowded house.

The Oil Region of Kentucky. From some gentlemen from the Saud Valley whom we met in the city yesterday re learn that the oil excitement in that egion is increasing, as the daily develop ents leave no doubt that oil in apparent inexhaustible quantities may be ob ned almost anywhere in a large section the country bordering on Virginia .ad others are in a fair way to attain im ense wealth. One well in Johnson coun

In these times of commercial trouble an ecuniary distress, we are glad to know that a portion of our fellow-citizens are reaping a rich barvest: and we sincerely trust that not to citizens of other State alone will the profits go. Storrs said to Morgan that he had intimated a doubt of his courage, and as they had rifles, and the moon was shining brightly, he could prove it.

Morgan responded to this proposition with alacrity. Twenty steps were paced off, and at the first fire Morgan fell dangerously wounded, the heavy ball of Sharp's rifle having entered his right groin and ranged through and out of the back part of the thigh. NUMBER 79.

One of the best signs of the times is the diminution in the number of failures as compared with last year. The return for January, 1861, for the United States, is 426, against 648 in 1860—a falling off of more than thirty per cent. Taking all things into account—the panic of November and December, the political troubles, the general want of confidence—this is a most encouraging sign, showing a stability and a sound base for confidence to build upon which was hardly to be expected. We have not seen any return of failures for February, but we do not believe the two months of revolution, rebellion, and partial stagnation will show any worse figures than we saw in the corresponding two months of the peaceful and prosperous year of 1869. The difficulty is that in troublous and dult times there are too many who have sufficient leisure and abundant inclination to make things appear worse than they are, to turn the dark side of cient leisure and abundant inclination to make things appear worse than they are, to turn the dark side of everything to the light, and to keep the bright side—"the silver lining"—out of sight as much as possible. It is almost useless to preach against it, for it is the "nature of the beast," and will come out. Let all who are interested, however, "make a note of it," to pass for its full value in these "hard times," that the total number of failures in the United States was thirty per cent. more in the month of January, 1860, than in January, 1861. Especially do we recommend this fact to the venerable family of "croakers."

Gov. Morehead is a man of ability, a adroit politician. If he did not succeed in proving that the Peace Conference proposition is better than CRITTENDEN's, it was because he undertook an impossibility. We have read his recent speech before

He thinks the plan of settlement agreed on by the Peace Conference should satisfactory-that, indeed, it is better for the South than the CRITTENDEN amendment. It is strange, if such be the case, that the Black Republicans should reject the latter and agree to the former. We are not convinced, however, that the ex-Comner takes the right view of the matreasoning. We cannot approve the doings of the Peace Conference, nor indorse the course of the majority of our Commissioners therein. Nor do others seem to like the Peace Conference propositions better than we do; for the Virginia State Convention has just rejected it by the decisive vote of

We of the Border States had an interest and sympathy in common with them, and felt perhaps too sensitively the necessity of joint and cooperative action to obtain our common rights. They thought differently, and without consulting us, or looking to our peculiar locality, have left us to seek those rights alone or to follow their example. Thus situated, with only cight Staveholding States and nineteen Free States, the NECES-SITY for such guarantees as would secure certainly and permanently all our just rights, must be apparent to all. THE TIME HAS COME WHEN THESE DISTRACTING AND PERPLEXING QUESTIONS MUST BE SETTILED FINALLY AND FORMEVER. There is a deep, pervading, intense, and almost universal feeling of injustice and injury already perpetrated, and in our present condition, without guarantees, there are undoubtedly serious grounds of uncasiness and alarm for the future. Looking to peace and reunion and a happy future, he administers a merited rebuke to the Journal and other Submission newspapers, who are continually "denouncing the seconded States" and their people "as the seceded States" and their people "as traitors and robbers." "Vituperation and abuse," he properly reminds them, "can do no good." "We must take facts as they are and make the most of them." Entertaining these honorable sentiments, we are happy to say that his speech is disfigured by none of the calumnies which less scrupulous, men have so industriously circulated for the purpose of creating prejudice against the people of the Confederate States" and the Associations therefore embrace a large proportion of citizens who do not labor with their hands. Under Which King?

Our "Union-savers" are perplexed beyond question by the contest that has sprung up between the two sections of the "Left Wing" for city officers.

The Journal indorsed the Workingmen's novement in its origin, and applauded ome hasty action which those engaged in it subsequently repudiated; and if we are not mistaken, the leaders of those who now claim to be the only orthodox friend of submission, joined heartily in what the organ now calls a "class" movement, and even attempted to control it. That their distinguished lawyer, an experienced and failure to secure the control of the organization and through it reach or retain a number of fat places in and about the Court House had any influence in shaping their recent course, we shall neither asse nor deny. It is well known, however, that a num ber of those who entered with apparent earnestness into the movement when it was first put on foot, are now working vigorously against it. They are determined to "squelsh" an organization which obstinately refuses to be managed by them. The question is, which are the best Union

But a reckless party, DEFIANT ALIKE OF THE SOLEMN WARNING OF THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY, AND OF THE SHIRIT OF A CONSTITUTION WHICH BOUND US IN A COMMON BOND OF UNION, DRAWING TOGETSER THE SCATTERED ELEMENTS OF PANATICISM AND ABOLITION, BY THE COHESIVE POWER ALONE OF HOSTILITY TO THE PROPERTY OF FIFTEEN STATES and again, it says:

We have attempted in every way in our power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to power to rub out old party lines and to reduce the strength should be avoided. They, instead of assisting nature, weaken and debilitate those organs. For Female complaints, take MCLEAN'S STRENGTIEN. It stands pre-eminent in all diseases peculiar to females. Try it; it is a delicious aromatic Cordial.

FURNITURE.—Whatton & Bennett keep always on hand a very large assortment of cabinet farniture of every description at wholessale and retail, cheap for cash. Their motto is transcribed in our provide And again, it says :

Certainly we viewed the matter thus; and certainly most others viewed it thus. The Workingmen's ticket was regarded as the nomination of a class, a most worthy and excellent class assuredly, yet still a class; and, although it declared itself for the Unior, people could not helplooking upon it with jealousy and apprekension as having probably a tendency, through an attempt at a monopoly of control, to array class against class—one of the worst political results that can befall a party or a community. It is no wonder then that the masses of the friends of the Union among as deemed it incumbent on them to get up a Convention of the whole Union men of the city, Union men who don't toil with their hands as well as those who do, in order to the nomination of a regular Union ticket for the universal Union party.

The "Citizens' and Workingmen's" or-Certainly we viewed the matter thus; an must be appared to all. THE TIME IAS COME WHEN THESE DISTRACTING AND PERPLEXING QUESTIONS MUST BE SETTLED FINALLY AND FOREVER. There is a deep, pervading, intense, and almost universal feeling of injustice and injury already perpetrated, and in our present condition, without guarantees, there are undoubtedly serious grounds of uncasiness and alarm for the future. He held that the General Government was made with reference to the existence of slavery; that when it was formed slavery existed in twelve of the thirteen States; that it made no property but recognized and protected all the rights of property as pre-existing—slave property as much as any other. The Constitution of the United States was Leither anti-slavery nor pro-slavery. It was neutral and altogether impartial, and he denied the right of a sectional party to make it assume an attitude of hostility to the property of those whose government it is. The slaveholding and the non-slaveholding States, and the citizens of cach, are the same to it. It does not allow one section to say to another, your institutions are inferior to ours, and a government common to both shall discriminate against yours. To a common to both shall discriminate against yours. To a common to both shall discriminate against yours. To a common to be declared and the constant of the people of that ward. In the First holding and others not, there can be no difference between a slaveholding and non-slaveholding in ground in a government is made to act in favor of the one and against the other, it is a prostitution of the object of its creation.

In nonther portion of his remarks, he says, "we are IDENTITED with the Cotton vention met on the next Saturday and made nominations in opposition to the wishes of the people of that ward. In the First Ward, also, the representation was not authorized by the people. The meeting which appointed them was composed of eleven men, all told, and was got up by a salaried officer of the city government. These eleven men made fourteen delegates. Is this what the Journal calls fairness?

These are facts, and we have given them from time to time in this column, and did not think, and do not still believe, that we were making "attacks" upon anybody. And not think, and do not still believe, that we were making "attacks" upon anybody. And yet, the Journal calls this body of gentlemen the Universal "Union Party." We think we have performed our duty only in exposing these tricks, for it is against the continued practice of them that the Clitzens and Workingmen organized, and proclaimed their determination to make an effort to have a reform, and they asked the co-operation of the men of all parties, who could lay down party ties, "so far as the objects of these Associations are concerned."

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Quake ity, from Havana on Monday, has ar Mach excitement existed at Havana on the subject of the annexation of San Domingo to Spain. It seems the system of Spanish emigration has been going on in that island, the emigrants being instructed, when the proper time arrived, to hoist the Spanish flag and invoke the protection of Spain. This was done on the 16th, much to the astonishment of the blacks and natives. When the news reached Havana, the frigate Blanca, fully armed, with a large number of regular troops was dispatched, sailing on the 23d. Two screw frigates will soon follow with 5,000 regulars. A large naval and military force of 10,000 men is said to be on the way from Spain. It is stated that Hayti will soon share the same fate as Domingo with the consent of France. Money Matters in Pittsburg. Money Matters in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, March 29.—Merchants and business men of this city are very generally standing up firmly against receiving depreciated currency except at broker's rates. To-day Missouri and Virginia money is received at 5 per cent. discount. The farmers will not receive it at all, and this kind of money is worthless to purchase provisions of first hands. The indications are that Pittsburg will hereafter be a par point.—Many of the manufacturers pay their hands exclusively in par money already. From Washington.
